Internet site, products and services

Website flash-advice.com provides online information and consulting services in market access, consumption, reimbursement and prices of health care products in France. The website flash-advice.com is owned and operated by FlashAdvice, a single shareholder simplified stock company under the French law, R.C.S. 824 629 398 Versailles.

Le site flash-advice.com and the products and services proposed through the site are intended for professionals interested in or working for pharmaceutical or medical device industry, distributors of health care products, public administration organisations and health authorities, public and private insurance companies, investors, investment funds or private equity advisers, market researchers, business analysts, consultants.

If you use the site flash-advice.com and/or purchase any products or services proposed through this site on behalf of your employer, you must guarantee that you are duly authorized and have all powers and authorizations to bind your employer by the present terms and conditions.

The online content, products and services are provided as described on the website flash-advice.com 1) at the date of use for free contents and 2) at the date of purchase for paid products and services.

Some products and services are proposed on the basis of online estimate. Once you filled out the online estimate form, the estimated total amount will be automatically displayed. After checking your order, FlashAdvice will then send to you an email containing the final detailed estimate and delivery period, and inviting you to proceed for online payment. Once your payment has been processed, FlashAdvice will send to you the order confirmation email.

Content, products and services provided through the website flash-advice.com can evolve at any moment.

Annual subscriptions

Some products and services are subscription-based. The paid subscriptions are taken for one calendar year (January 1st to December 31). By purchasing a subscription during a year, you automatically get access for all products and/or services provided to the subscribers from the beginning of the year. You can cancel your paid subscription at any moment by sending an email on contact@flash-advice.com with the subject "Unsubscribe". However, no refund will be made in case of cancellation. Paid subscriptions are not automatically renewed; before the end of subscription year, you will receive an email inviting you to renew your subscription for the next year. However, some subscription-based services may be offered free of charge; by subscribing for such services, you expressly accept to be informed by email on new products and services proposed by FlashAdvice. You can cancel your free subscription at any moment and stop receiving advertising emails from FlashAdvice by sending to us an email on contact@flash-advice.com with the subject "Unsubscribe". The cancellation will be effective immediately.
